From him we learn that the French army had been laying close seige to Zaatcha, for several weeks.-This place is situated in the midst of a desert, and its position is, in consequence, very formidable. The resistance of the inhabitants is unsurpassed in courage and patriotic devotion in the annals of the world. The town stands in the midst of a thick forest of date trees, is surrounded by a high and strong wall of brick, flanked by towers, and on the outside is sill further strengthened by a deep fosse, filled with water, and six yards wide. The entire space within, surrounding the central village, is cut up into gardens with high walls, and each house is of itself a complete battlement. It is probable that town where he lived was in an uproar with the passage of artillery and troops going to join the French standard. They were all in the highest spirits, singing the Marseillaise and other patriotic songs, as well as the gay chansons so popular in the French army. Then came Waterloo-the terrible struggle, the defeat and the route. Few sung on their return. The wounded filled up the village-every public house and building was turned into a hospital, and so great was the number of the sufferers, that they were quartered in private houses. Forty wounded were accommodated by the father of our informant. Among them was a vieux moustache of the vieille garde, one of those men of iron constitution and indomitable spirit, who had crossed the Alps, fought at the Pyramids, triumphed at Austerlitz, and survived the Pyramids, triumphed at Austerlitz, and survived Major Gen'l Scott, Brevet Major Henry L. REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET, FOR THE WEEK ENDING DECEMBER 13, 1849. Bacon-Stock of Bacon of all descriptions light, and sale very dull. Middlings a fraction lower. BEANS-White, but few in market, and not much enquiry

BEEF CATTLE-The market is fully stocked with Beef Catle, and no demand at present.

Conx-About 800 bushels free a Onslow sold at 52½ cents per bushel, afloat ; store price 55 to 60 cents. MEAL 65 to 70 cents and references :

COFFEE-The stock in store is light, and some descriptions gone up a shade. See table. Eggs-Sell from carts at 16 to 20 cents per dozen. FLOUR-Plenty, and sales dull, at prices ranging from $- 75 to $5 25 per barrel for Fayetteville brands.

HAY-None received this week. LARD-Stock on sale heavy, and prices, in some instances, have declined to 71 cents per lb. by the barrel; kegs firm, but slow sales, at 9 cents.

LIME-No arrival this work; store price $1 per cask. LUMBER-Four or five rafts of Lumber have changed hands this week, at prices ranging as follows: Scantling $4 50 a $5; wide boards $6 25; flooring boards $8 25.

Molasses-A cargo from Cuba, consisting of 160 hhds. and 3 tierces, (reported below last week,) has been landed, and all to 30 or 40 hhds, readily taken at 25 cents per gallon, at Rev A. A. Watson,

NAVAL STORES-The receipts of Turpentine have been near-3,500 barrels during the week, which have changed hands at last week's quotations, closing to-day at $2 05 for yellow dip, and $1 40 for hard Turpentine. Spirits Turpentine has advanced to 28 a 29 cents per gallon, (and $1 75 for barrels not returnable,) since last Thursday, and sales of about 200 barrels at our highest figure. Sellers now refuse less than 30 cents, though we hear of no transaction at this price. Rosin-Sales of 1300 barrels No. 3 at 70 cents, and 112 barrels No. 2 at $1 per barrel. There is but little demand at this time for Rosin. TAR has declined. Sales of about 950 bar- ket, of a like quality. rels during the week, ranging at $1 30 down to $1 20; clo-

Peas-Ground Peas have declined a fraction. We now uote at 80 a 90 cents per bushel. Black eye, no sales except in a small way-would bring about quotations. Several hundred bushels Cow Peas, received per Rail Road, and sold at 65 a 70 cents per bushel.

PORK-The market is generally pretty well supplied with fresh pork, and sales effected at 4 and 5 cents per pound in quantity to suit. POTATOES-The stock of Irish potatoes is fair: store rates moderate request, and the sales recently noticed were at some without change. See table for price in lots of 5 barrels and Poultry-The market has been pretty well attended with cents a $1, delivered from vessel; 500 bbls Wilmington, $1 Poultry during the week, and prices have ranged according date 75 10 a $1 20 from vessel, and delivered, and 600 barrels Spirits to quality. For something near the value of Turkeys and

RICE-We hear of no transaction whatever in either clean or rough Rice, this week. Quotations nominal. SALT .- None affoat-for store rates see table.

SHINGLES .- Several lots have changed hands during the week, at $1 a $1 125 per M. STAVES-Several thousand White Oak barrel and hhe Staves have been sold at $15 a $16.

ASHE HEADING-Sales at $9 to $10 50 per thousand pieces. TIMBER-Some six or seven rafts Mill Timber have been sold during the week. See table for classified prices. FREIGHTS-No change to make in rates of freight. The uantity offering is fair for the number of vessels in port. EXCHANGES-Bank rates, I per cent premium on Northern
